THURSDAYS AT NOON

Dukas The Sorcerer

John Kruspe, piano

Studying with Douglas Bodle and Anton Kuerti, John Kruspe graduated from the University of Toronto's Faculty of Music in 1968. He liked the place so much that he decided to stay, and after five years as a contract teacher he was appointed in 1973 to a full-time position in the Theory and Composition division.

In addition to appearing many times in concerts of solo piano repertoire and chamber music, John Kruspe has also performed in numerous venues as a silent film accompanist, and for a number of years accompanied the Toronto Film Society's silent film series. His abiding fascination with that art form and related entertainments in the later 19th- and early 20th-century is demonstrated in today's presentation: one slide is of a magic lantern phantasmagoria.
